

I have great concern with the LPFM broadcasting. It would not be in the local interest to replace stations like K-Love. It offers good spiritual uplift and wholesome music not offered in many places. It should be our constitutional right to keep this station available to all listeners. I don't want to be preimposed to what I have to listen to. You must not take away K-love and other stations right to offer freedom of speech and religion.